Part I, Line 2:

No Greater Sacrifice (NGS) grants are awarded to children of fallen and wounded Service members with the goal of providing a debt-free undergraduate college education. NGS delivers scholarships and resources to improve their quality of life through the pursuit of higher education. NGS honors the sacrifices of our Service members by investing in their children's capacity for greatness through education. In addition to the critical funding, NGS provides personalized mentorship to each scholar and their families to help them better define their career and educational goals, and to improve their quality of life through the pursuit of higher education.

The scholarship covers tuition and fees (up to the cost of Public In-State University/College Tuition and Fees), room and board, books, and special equipment.

To monitor the use of grant funds, through the application process a scholar's eligibility is verified based on Department of Defense and Veteran's Affairs related documentation to ensure the NGS requirements are met for selection. A funding liability is established based on information known at time of selection.

For each school term, each scholar's detailed request for funds are reviewed by both the Executive Director and NGS Board Member and Military Family Liaison with approval from the NGS Finance Committee (composed of: Chairman, Treasurer, Director of Investments) prior to disbursing funds.

Funds are disbursed directly to the college or university, when possible, to be applied to the student's account/expenses with NGS being the last dollar to ensure their account is fully paid. Along with NGS, the funds are monitored with the schools and scholars with any unused funds returned to the organization. Additionally, each scholar is reviewed by the board annually.

Any remaining liability at the time of completion is then able to be used for new scholars.

Part IV Supplemental Information

Part III, Line 2(c) Amount of grant- Scholarships for education

In 2019, NGS awarded $1,677,600 in scholarships to 44 new scholars, and increased $39,200 in scholarships to 5 current NGS scholars for a total of 1,716,800 in Scholarship expense.

In accordance with GAAP accounting, the net present value of the 2019 scholarships awarded must be determined. The net present value is based on the scholar's age and discount rate, and is adjusted annually to reflect changes in various factors, most notably the scholar's age. The net present value of the 2019 scholarships awarded and reported in Part III, column (c) is 929,404.

At the end of 2019, NGS has a total of 206 scholarship recipients.

In accordance with GAAP accounting, the net present value of the 2019 scholarships awarded must be determined. The net present value is based on the scholar's age and discount rate, and is adjusted annually to reflect changes in various factors, most notably the scholar's age.

The previous year's funding determines the number of new commitments.

Therefore, based off 2018, this year NGS was able to select 44 new scholars and make commitments to fund their post-high school education.

NGS scholarships deliver assistance to reduce the unmet financial costs of higher education, which includes: in-state tuition, room and board, special equipment, books, or other expenses deemed necessary. NGS provides scholars with customized mentorship and funding to achieve their full education potential and works to ensure scholars earn their undergraduate degree debt-free.
