educational goals, and to improve their quality of life through the pursuit of higher education.

The scholarship covers tuition and fees (up to the cost of Public In-State University/College Tuition and Fees), room and board, books, and special equipment.

To monitor the use of grant funds, through the application process a scholar's eligibility is verified based on Department of Defense and Veteran's Affairs related documentation to ensure the NGS requirements are met for selection. A funding liability is established based on information known at time of selection.

For each school term, each scholar's detailed request for funds are reviewed by both the Program Manager, Executive Director/Director of Operations, and NGS Board Member and Military Family Liaison with approval from the NGS Finance Committee (composed of: Chairman, Treasurer, Director of Investments) to disburse funds.

Funds are disbursed directly to the college or university, when possible, to be applied to the student's account/expenses with NGS being the last dollar to ensure their account is fully paid. Along with NGS, the funds are monitored with the schools and scholars with any unused funds returned to the organization. Additionally, each scholar is reviewed by the board annually.

Any remaining liability at the time of completion is then able to be used for new scholars.

In accordance with GAAP accounting, the net present value of the 2023 scholarships awarded must be determined. The net present value is based on the scholar's age and discount rate, and is adjusted annually to reflect changes in various factors, most notably the scholar's age.

Typically the previous year's funding determines the number of new scholarship commitments. NGS is proud to have been able to select 38 new scholars and make commitments to fund their post-high school education.

NGS scholarships deliver assistance to reduce the unmet financial costs of higher education, which includes: in-state tuition, room and board, special equipment, books, or other expenses deemed necessary. NGS provides scholars with customized mentorship and coaching and funding to achieve their full education potential and works to ensure scholars earn their undergraduate degree debt-free.

Instead, NGS opened its doors wider to include helping the families of our wounded Service members. NGS is dedicated to the children of our nation's fallen and wounded Service members by delivering scholarships and resources to improve their quality of life through the pursuit of higher education. NGS accomplishes its mission by mentoring and coaching and funding NGS recipients with higher education tuition, room, board, and books, as well as sister charities that are working on behalf of this noble cause. NGS's vision is to honor the sacrifices of our Service members by investing in their children's capacity for greatness through education.
