No Greater Sacrifice (NGS) grants are awarded to children of fallen and wounded Service members with the goal of providing a debt-free undergraduate college education. NGS delivers scholarships and resources to improve their quality of life through the pursuit of higher education. NGS honors the sacrifices of our Service members by investing in their children's capacity for greatness through education. In addition to the critical funding, NGS provides personalized mentorship and coaching to each scholar and their families to help them better define their career and educational goals, and to improve their quality of life through the pursuit of higher education.

The scholarship covers tuition and fees (up to the cost of Public In-State University/College Tuition and Fees), room and board, books, and special equipment.

To monitor the use of grant funds, through the application process a scholar's eligibility is verified based on Department of Defense and

Part IV Supplemental Information

Veteran's Affairs related documentation to ensure the NGS requirements are met for selection. A funding liability is established based on information known at time of selection.

For each school term, each scholar's detailed request for funds are reviewed by both the Program Manager, Executive Director/Director of Operations, and NGS Board Member and Military Family Liaison with approval from the NGS Finance Committee (composed of: Chairman, Treasurer, Director of Investments) to disburse funds.

Funds are disbursed directly to the college or university, when possible, to be applied to the student's account/expenses with NGS being the last dollar to ensure their account is fully paid. Along with NGS, the funds are monitored with the schools and scholars with any unused funds returned to the organization. Additionally, each scholar is reviewed by the board annually.

Any remaining liability at the time of completion is then able to be used for new scholars.

Part III, Line 2(c) Amount of grant- Scholarships for education

In 2024, NGS awarded $2,604,000 in scholarships to 61 new recipients.

In accordance with GAAP accounting, the net present value of the 2024 scholarships awarded must be determined. The net present value is based on the recipient's age and discount rate and is adjusted annually to reflect changes in various factors, most notably the recipient's age. The net present value of the 2024 scholarships awarded and reported in Part III, column (c) is $2,711,735.

At the end of 2024, NGS has a total of 418 scholarship recipients.

Form 990 Part I, Line 13:

In accordance with GAAP accounting, the net present value of the 2024 scholarships awarded must be determined. The net present value is based on the scholar's age and discount rate, and is adjusted annually to reflect changes in various factors, most notably the scholar's age.

Typically the previous year's funding determines the number of new scholarship commitments. NGS is proud to have been able to select 61 new scholars and make commitments to fund their post-high school education.

NGS scholarships deliver assistance to reduce the unmet financial costs of higher education, which includes: in-state tuition, room and board, special equipment, books, or other expenses deemed necessary. NGS provides scholars with customized mentorship and coaching and funding to achieve their full education potential and works to ensure scholars earn their undergraduate degree debt-free.

Form 990, Part III, Line 1 - Organization's mission:

No Greater Sacrifice Foundation (NGS) is a District of Columbia not-for-profit corporation that is recognized as an organization qualified for tax exemption under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code. NGS was officially incorporated on January 7, 2008, to provide college funding to children of those who have fallen in service to the nation. Together with other veterans support organizations, NGS joined the effort to secure passage of the post 9/11 GI Bill which provides full GI Bill educational benefits for the children of Service members who die in the line of duty after September 10, 2001. With the passage of this legislation, NGS did not close its doors. Instead, NGS opened its doors wider to include helping the families of our wounded Service members. NGS is dedicated to the children of our nation's fallen and wounded Service members by delivering scholarships and resources to improve their quality of life through the pursuit of higher education. NGS accomplishes its mission by mentoring and coaching and funding NGS recipients with higher education tuition, room, board, and books, as well as sister charities that are working on behalf of this noble cause. NGS's vision is to honor the sacrifices of our Service members by investing in their children's capacity for greatness through education.
